REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-8 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

References US 20040095993, US 20040217753, US 6934341, US 6940916 and US 5732333 are cited because they are pertinent to the claimed invention.

-Regarding to independent claim 1, none of prior art of record teaches or suggests a method comprising procedures of selectively establishing a physical connection between an output terminal of a transmitter and an input terminal of a receiver; outputting from the transmitter an OFDM signal generated based on a local oscillator signal; generating a demodulated signal in the receiver by demodulating the OFDM signal, received by the receiver via the physical connection, using the local oscillator signal; performing frequency-domain estimation of amplitude and phase imbalances in the demodulated signal; and performing imbalance compensation on a received wireless OFDM signal based on said amplitude and phase imbalances.

Art Unit: 2618

–Regarding to independent claim 6, none of prior art of record teaches or suggests a transceiver wherein the transceiver comprises a receiver having a mixer for demodulating a received OFDM signal to a demodulated OFDM signal based on a local oscillator signal, a compensation module for performing imbalance compensation on the demodulated OFDM signal based on determined amplitude and phase imbalances; a loop-back switch for selectively supplying a first OFDM, which is generated from a transmitter of the transceiver based on the local oscillator signal, via a physical connection for being demodulated by the mixer of the receiver; and an imbalance estimator configured for frequency-based determination of the amplitude and phase imbalances based on the first demodulated OFDM.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
